

Binit Kumar Mishra

EDUCATION

Mahatma Gandhi KashiVidyapith, Varanasi, India Master in Hindi, GPA: 3.0/4.0	2009-2011
Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi, India Master of Arts in Tourism Management, GPA: 4.00/4.00	2006-2008
Sampurnanand Sanskrit University, Varanasi, India Diploma in French and Russian, GPA: 4.00/4.00	2006-2008
Ranchi University, Ranchi, India Bachelor of Commerce, GPA: 4.00/4.00	2002 -2005

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

HEAD HINDI INSTRUCTOR 2011 –Present
Stockholm University Sweden (Varanasi, India)
Instructed Hindi for students of Stockholm University in Varanasi for fall and spring semester. Materials taught, which are not limited to, include: Devanagari script mastery, all grammatical constructions, drills, conversational skills. Simultaneously served as a cultural guide by lecturing the students on the different anthropological aspects of India and led discussions on disparate social issues related to the country. Coordinated with other assistant teachers by mentoring them on teaching methodologies. Additional classes were taught by using Idgah, one of the prominent works by the author Premchand.

HINDI INSTRUCTOR 2009-Present
Princeton University Bridge Year Program (Varanasi, India)
In charge of intensive Hindi instruction for 5 Bridge Year students ages 17 -19 for the first month of their stay in India. Materials taught, which are not limited to, include: Devanagari script mastery, all grammatical constructions ranging from simple present to perfective tenses, conversational practice, Reading and writing exercises.

BHOJPURI INSTRUCTOR 2009-Present
(Varanasi, India)
Instructed Bhojpuri language (dialect of Varanasi) to independent students and made interview with locals in Bhojpuri language for research scholar of anthropology from University of Chicago.

HINDI INSTRUCTOR

Centro Risorse India

2008-Present

(Varanasi, India)

Taught Hindi for Centro Risorse India which is a representative organization for the University of Venice, Italy. Primary duties involved teaching Hindi for undergraduate advanced students who had prior Hindi instructions at the University of Venice. Concurrently in charge of instructing Hindi for Master level students from the same university. Produced study materials according to their syllabus that were provided by the university. Conducted final examinations and reported the results to the head of Centro Risorse.

HINDI INSTRUCTOR AND HINDI MENTOR

Where There Be Dragons

2006-Present

(Varanasi, India)

Instructed Hindi for a semester gap year program during the fall and spring semesters for 12 students ages 17 -19. Concurrently served as a mentor for students focusing on Hindi for their Independent Study Projects that were presented as their final project. Served as an interpreter from Hindi to English for lectures.

RESEARCH ASSISTANT

University of Wisconsin, USA

2007-2010

(Varanasi, India)

Assisted in various research projects primarily through interpretation for the students of the University of Wisconsin. Area of topics included: educational patterns Varanasi proper; waste management in Varanasi; food supply patterns; study on the relationship between lawyers and clients; women's issues in India; religious traditions of Varanasi.

PUBLICATIONS AND PRESENTATIONS

Wrote a dissertation paper on Golf tourism in India and its possibility in Master in Tourism Management while studying at Banaras Hindu University.

FACULTY AND MEMBER

Guest faculty at Vasanta College for Women in the Department of Tourism Management, Rajghat fort, Varanasi affiliated to Banaras Hindu University