

FUDL CHIN401 Intensive Advanced Chinese IV

The Alliance for Global Education Intensive Language Program

General Information

On average, students have previously studied Chinese for 7 to 8 semesters before taking this course and have already learned some intermediate Chinese grammar patterns. This intensive course meets 5 times a week for a total of 20.5 hours per week. Students are expected to spend 2-3 hours a day preparing for class, previewing for daily dictation, and doing homework. Only Chinese is allowed in the class. Students will focus on improving their Chinese pronunciation and tones, learning new grammar patterns and practicing the newly learned grammar and vocabulary. Organized in-class activities include daily dictation, bi-weekly tests, memorizing dialogues, and completing oral exercises such as retelling stories, making up dialogues, giving presentations, and performing skits.

Objectives

This class helps students strengthen their skills in listening, speaking, reading, and writing. The topics in the textbook cover the most commonly used conversations. On average, students are expected to learn at least 40 new Chinese words every class day. By the end of the semester, students will be able to learn 310 new characters and to recognize and write 1354 new words and 190 new grammar patterns. Students should be able to function in Chinese in their daily life with good confidence and to hold conversations with local Chinese people on most common topics, such as talking about Chinese culture, food, customs and local arts. In addition, with using some high level vocabulary, students can also talk about some social issues, such as birth control in China and women's social status in Chinese society.

Students are required to take five Chinese courses; these courses are the Grammar class, Drill 1 & 2, One-on-one and intensive courses. Before class, you should prepare the new words for every lesson. During class, your teacher will introduce to you the new grammar patterns and use of new vocabulary. In Drill 1 & 2, you will be able to practice the material that you have learned in the grammar classes. One-On-One class will give you an opportunity to chat with your teacher and work on any particular problems you might have. Intensive courses include Short-term Spoken Chinese textbook, listening and speaking, reading, idiom story, oral description, films, newspaper and language practicum. The Short-term Spoken Chinese textbook will let students know how to use spoken Chinese. The listening and speaking lessons enhance their listening and speaking capability of communication in Chinese. The idiom story and film lessons will help students to learn more Chinese culture and history. The reading, oral description and newspaper lessons will teach students more applied words and sentences, so they can use the words and sentences to express their opinion or describe something better. Finally, during practicum the whole class will go out and interact with the Shanghai community. This is the best opportunity to practice your Chinese and learn about the life of Chinese people.
