

Sample Directed Research Projects

Environment and Occupational Health

- Assessment of Water, Sanitation, and Hygiene in the Slums of Udupi

Infections and Diseases

- Assessing the Short-term Economic Impacts of Malaria on the Household Level and the Barriers to Malaria Eradication in the Udupi District
- Narratives of Diabetic Retinopathy: A Qualitative Pilot Study
- The Rise of Multi-Drug Resistant Tuberculosis in India: The Socio-Cultural Factors that Affect Patient Adherence: A Pilot Study and Methods Paper
- The Emergence of a Global Menace: A Review of the Cultural, Medical, and Political Factors Influencing the Spread of HIV in India and Their Universal Implications
- Perceptions among Key Stakeholders about Malaria Control and Preventive Measures in Udupi District, Karnataka
- Furanone and its Natural Sources: A Study on its Activity against Candida Species Isolated from Oral Lesions of Retro-positive Patients

Women and Children's Health

- Sex Workers' Lived Experiences of Security and Health in Udupi, Karnataka, India: A Pilot Case Study on Presumed Consequences of Prostitution Legislation
- Nutritional Status of Children Aged 1 to 5 Years at Sonia Clinic Women and Children's Hospital, Manipal, Karnataka
- Teacher Perspectives on Menstrual Hygiene Practices in Rural Government Schools of Udupi District
- Incidence and Prevalence of HPV and other Viral Cofactors in the Udupi Region and their Role in the Development of Cervical Cancer
- Social Determinants of Exclusive Breast Feeding
- Hospital Information Management System as Observed in a Rural Maternal and Child Health Hospital in Karkala
- Gender and Sexual Minority Healthcare: MSM, Transgender, and Hijra Experiences with the Healthcare System in Udupi
- The Janani Suraksha Yojana and its Effects on Infant and Maternal Mortality Rates
- Family Planning Perspectives and Practices in Karnataka India