

Sample Internship Placements

Interns are placed with organizations working in the fields of business, community development, education, environment, human rights, microfinance and public health. The Alliance matches students' with organizations based on the student's expressed interests, goals and skills, and the organization's needs and domains of work. This list is representative of the types of opportunities available.

Business

GITS – consult on marketing for American audiences; research export requirements

Genesis – prepare market research reports; conduct outreach; attend client meetings

Community Development

Deep Griha – evaluate empowerment programs; conduct awareness survey of water quality

Parvati Swayamrojgar – study parenting practices and interventions

Education

Ankur Vidya Mandir – assist teachers with direct student intervention; assess physical fitness

Saheli Sangh – survey educational opportunities and barriers for children of sex workers

Environment

Jividha – develop environmental education modules; conduct environmental assessments

Nav Nirman Nyas – market organic produce; report on pesticide usage

Human Rights

Sahyog Trust – assess compliance of police stations with India's rape policies; develop training and policies on sexual harassment

Saheli Sangh – participate in legal literacy program; research the 1956 Immoral Traffic Prevention Act

Media

DNA – conduct interviews and write human interest pieces

COPPre – build brand presence on Twitter & Pinterest; assist in creation of Coppre's e-commerce website

Microfinance

Parvati Swayamrojgar – assess and evaluate microfinance products and services, including financial literacy, micro-loans, and micro-health insurance

Public Health

Deep Griha Society – evaluate HIV advocacy program; research family planning attitudes and practices

National Institute of Naturopathy – study naturopathic exercise and diet treatments

Saheli Sangh – conduct needs assessment at weekly health clinic; document prevalence of HIV in sex workers; conduct activities for HIV/AIDS support group